LE COROT ❀❀

Here you are at the beginning of the adventure!

Around you, the effervescence of my territory is revealed. A Paris of countryside coiled between vegetable gardens, forests and ponds where fauna and wild flora get ready to marry under your eyes.

Let yourself be carried away by the treasures of this surrounding nature. Those of my market gardeners, my pickers, my breeders, my fishermen, my wine growers...

It is to these craftsmen of the earth and the water, who entrust me with their wonders and allow me to write the most beautiful cookbook every day that I want to pay tribute here.

However, it is impossible to tell the story alone. We are better when we are together. Thanks to my crew for accompanying me in my country cooking.
